

McCLOY DRAFT

On the representations of the Soviet Union contained in the statements made by the Soviet Union herein above referred to and provided no nuclear weapons and weapon systems capable of offensive use are introduced or re-introduced into Cuba, and if Cuba does not on its part institute any attacks on the states of the Organization of American States, the United States declares that it will not invade Cuba or support any invasion of Cuba from within any part of the United States or otherwise. This declaration is in conformity with the provisions of the United Nations Charter and the Rio Pact and does not alter any of the rights or obligations contained therein. The United States will recommend to the respective states of the Organization of American States that on the basis of the declarations made by the Soviet Union and on the conditions stated in this declaration, the said states will adopt the same attitude in respect of the invasion of Cuba as that herein expressed by the United States.

(11/21/62)

STATE review(s) completed.

STEVENSON DRAFT

On condition that the withdrawal of weapons systems capable of offensive use and of Soviet military personnel is completed as undertaken, on condition that no such weapon systems are further introduced into Cuba, and on condition that Cuba adheres to its obligation under the UN Charter, the United States gives its assurance against an invasion of Cuba or support of an invasion of Cuba. We make this pledge and recommend that other nations of the Western Hemisphere adopt the same attitude on the basis of the conditions stated in this declaration by the United States.

(11/21)

11/21 - 4th

All present except VP.